

Shannon Bohle, MLIS - Running for Librarian

1st year Ph.D. student
History and Philosophy of Science

Dissertation topic: Preservation of historical and archival materials at Cambridge

INTERESTED IN IMPROVING

UL and Campus Book Delivery/Return Services to/from St. Edmunds

Fun Library Programming

Non-print Format Acquisitions (CD music and DVD movies)

Online Interlibrary Loan Requests and Electronic (Email) Article Delivery

Qualifications

Master's degree in Library and Information Science

5+ years combined professional experience as a librarian and archivist

Experience

- Director/Volunteer, Neil A. Armstrong Library and Archives, NASA JPL/Caltech
- Archivist of the James D. Watson Collection, Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory
- Practicum Student (Intern), NASA Glenn Research Center – History Division, Archives
- Editorial Board member of the journal Library and Archival Security (Routledge)

Skills

Reference Services, Programming and Outreach, Materials Selection and Acquisition, Interlibrary Loan, Cataloging, Archiving, Metadata, Web 2.0, Web 3.0, Digital Collections Curation and Management, Copyright Fee Negotiations, Artificial Intelligence.

Selected Publications & Presentations:

University of Oxford, Berkeley, O'Reilly, Library Journal, Nobel Prize Museum, Society of American Archivists, Special Libraries Association, Nature website, Cambridge University Press, FM/AM Radio

For details, see: <http://cambridge.academia.edu/ShannonBohle/About>